Published by Authority.

From Tuesday December 9, to Saturday December 13, 1760.

St. James's, December 13.

THE following Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant and Cuſtos Rotulorum of the County of Middleſex, the Deputy Lieutenants, and Juſtices of the Peace of the ſaid County, and of the City and Liberty of Weſtminſter, was preſented to His Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle the Lord Lieutenant, attended by the Earl of Kinnoull, and the Right Honourable the Lord Carpenter; by Sir William Beauchamp Proctor, Bart. and George Cooke, Eſq; Repreſentatives for the ſaid County, the Honourable Major General Cornwallis, one of the Repreſentatives of the ſaid City and Liberty, and by a great Number of the Deputy Lieutenants, and Juſtices of the Peace of the ſaid County, City and Liberty.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant and Cuſtos Rotulorum, the Deputy Lieutenants, and Juſtices of the Peace of the County of Middleſex, and City and Liberty of Weſtminſter, in the ſaid County, beg Leave, in the moſt dutiful Manner, to expreſs our Sorrow and Concern for the ſudden Death of your Royal Grandfather, our late moſt gracious Sovereign; a King, whoſe glorious Reign will make a moſt ſhining Figure in the Britiſh Hiſtory; and tranſmit his Name, with laſting Renown, to ſucceeding Ages.

This Loſs could not be repaired, or the Nation's Grief alleviated, but by the Bleſſing of your Sacred Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne of your Anceſtors. On which Occaſion, with Hearts full of Joy, we moſt ſincerely congratulate your Majeſty; and moſt earneſtly pray to God, that your Reign may be long, happy and proſperous. That thoſe rare Excellencies of Mind, which your Majeſty has ſo early diſcovered, may gather Strength and Vigour, from Year to Year, and be productive of that Gratitude, Confidence, and Affection, from your own Subjects; and that Weight, Honour, and Influence Abroad, which ever have been, and always muſt be, the Effect of the united Bleſſings of Piety, Virtue, and Magnanimity, in a Britiſh Sovereign.

And permit us, Great Sir, to give you the ſincereſt Aſſurances of our Zeal and Attachment to your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Government. And that our conſtant Attention ſhall be employed to ſecure to our Fellow Subjects, as far as in us lies, thoſe Rights, Liberties and Privileges, which your known Love for Juſtice, and the admirable Conſtitution of your Kingdoms, gives them ſo juſt a Title to. And we aſſure your Majeſty, that our utmoſt Efforts ſhall be exerted to produce that Peace, Decency, and good Order, ſo much the Object of your Majeſty's Wiſhes; and at the ſame Time to diſcountenance and ſuppreſs all Vice and Immorality, by a candid, diligent and impartial Execution of the Laws.

Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly: They had all the Honour to kiſs His Majeſty's Hand: And His Majeſty at the ſame Time was pleaſed to confer the Honour of Knighthood upon Henry Cheere, Eſq; one of the Deputy Lieutenants, and a Juſtice of the Peace for the County of Middleſex, and for the City and Liberty of Weſtminſter.

[Price Six-Pence.]

The following Addreſs of the Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Cirenceſter, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable Lord Bathurſt: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble and unanimous Addreſs of the Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Cirenceſter, in the County of Glouceſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon, to mingle our Griefs with thoſe of your Majeſty on that mournful Event, the ſudden Death of your illuſtrious Grandfather, our late excellent Monarch; in whom the great and the amiable Qualities were moſt happily blended; whoſe Wiſdom and Fortitude, whoſe Juſtice and Clemency, will endear his Name to all future Ages; and the Glories of whoſe Reign will be conſpicuous among the ſplendid Ornaments of Hiſtory. We moſt ſincerely lament him, and diſtant Nations will join us lamenting him, as not only the common Father of his own Subjects, but, under Providence, the Aſſertor and the Champion of Europe's Rights and Liberties.

Permit us at the ſame Time to congratulate your Majeſty on your happy Acceſſion to the Imperial Throne of theſe Realms, and to the Government of a free, proſperous, united and loyal People. We who have been honoured with the Preſence of your Royal and Auguſt Parents, cannot help entertaining a peculiar and moſt affectionate Veneration for your Majeſty, and thinking ourſelves as it were peculiarly concerned in your Proſperity and Glory. What could comfort us under a Senſe of our late ineſtimable Loſs, but the Elevation of a Prince, who is equally formed to govern, to bleſs and to charm admiring Nations? We pay our reſpects, not merely to your ſupreme Rank in the Community, but likewiſe to thoſe Virtues and Endowments, from which even that Rank will derive Ornament and Luſtre. Your engaging Character when Prince of Wales, formed by a moſt accompliſhed Princeſs; your late Royal Declaration, that you glory in the Name of Briton; your eſteeming the Loyalty and Affection of your People the moſt permanent Security of your Throne; your accepting the Services of a conſtitutional Militia; your Promiſe of Encouragement to Military Merit; your magnanimous Reſolution to ſupport your Allies, and proſecute the War with Vigour; your tender Concern for the unavoidable Burdens of your Subjects; and your truly Royal Purpoſe to protect their Trade, to maintain inviolable their Civil and Religious Liberties, and countenance the Practice of Piety and Virtue: Theſe are Omens of our national Happineſs, will render your Majeſty the Delight of theſe Kingdoms, the Admiration of the World, and the Favorite of an all-ruling Providence. 'Tis a great Felicity, of your Majeſty's Government, that you are enthroned in the Hearts of the moſt unanimous Subjects, whoſe only Contention it is, who ſhall be moſt ardent in their Expreſſions of Loyalty, and their Regards for the common Good.

The recent Succeſſes of the Britiſh Arms we joyfully and devoutly acknowledge; and are highly pleaſed with the Reflection, that the ſingular Humanity with which they have been attended, renders our Victories rather a Happineſs than Misfortune to the Inhabitants of the conquered Countries. The Abilities and Valor of your Majeſty's General Prince Ferdinand;

Ferdinand; the enterprising Ardor of the Hereditary Prince; the usual Intrepidity of your British Officers and Forces, may well despise the impotent Efforts of the French, and triumph over superior Numbers.

The Genius, the Heroism, the rapid Movements of your great Ally, the King of Prussia; his invincible Perseverance and Spirit, and his most amazing Exploits, tho' contending with half Europe in Arms, will hardly obtain Credit when related in distant Ages. 'Tis our fervent Prayer, that your Majesty's Enemies, and those of your Confederates, may be soon and effectually humbled; that your Life may be long, prosperous and glorious; that the choicest Blessings, which Providence has ever bestowed on the best and most favored Kings, may distinguish and adorn your Majesty's Reign; and that, through all the Revolutions of Time, the same Blessings may attend your Royal Descendants, as Monarchs of these happy Realms.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Deputy Lieutenants, Gentlemen and Clergy of the County Palatine of Chester, has been presented to His Majesty by Samuel Egerton and Thomas Cholmondeley, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the said County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of Peace, Deputy Lieutenants, Gentlemen and Clergy of the County Palatine of Chester, purposely assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's dutiful and faithful Subjects, the High Sheriff, Justices of Peace, Deputy Lieutenants, Gentlemen and Clergy of your County Palatine of Chester, do, with a Loyalty ever inherent in this ancient and honourable Palatinate, beg Leave humbly to express a deep Concern for the Loss of your August Grandfather, our invested Princely Earl, and late most glorious Monarch, who having long blessed these Nations with such amiable and eminent Qualities, as will distinguishingly grace the British Annals, was called from us, full of Days, and full of Glory.

Much, indeed, is this Event alleviated, since we can now present to your Majesty our bounden Allegiance, together with zealous Congratulations, on your happy Accession to the Imperial Crown of these Kingdoms; and let us offer likewise our most ardent Wishes, that you may long and prosperously reign over your duteous, ample, and hereditary Realms.

It is also a powerful Consolation, that we have undoubted Assurances of your Majesty's innate Goodness, and excellent Disposition, as likewise of your great Attainments in the Science of Government, founded upon the wisest Maxims, and deduced from the best Examples. This Proficiency happily evinces, that what, in other Potentates, has usually been the late Production of tedious Experience in you, blooms forth the early Acquisition of undissipated Youth.

Most pleasingly may we further reflect, that your Royal Mind has been more immediately formed after that illustrious Pattern, whose righteous Sceptre paternally guarded our excellent Establishment and much-envied Constitution.

How abundant also are our auspicious Hopes, with respect to the Security of the Publick Weal, from your Majesty's gracious and affectionate Declarations to both Houses of Parliament. These have afforded the highest Satisfaction to us at home, and will soon diffuse the like Sensations through distant Provinces, the valuable Appendages of your far-extended Empire.

We shall now gratefully and dutifully add, that your Sacred Majesty, who, with the Throne of your Ancestors, inherit every Regal Virtue, and already reign in the Hearts of a united and faithful People; may entirely depend, that this loyal Palatinate will ever exert its utmost Efforts in Support of your Majesty's Person and Government.

Given under our Hands at Northwich in the said County Palatine, the twenty-eighth Day of November, 1760.

The following Address of the Bailiffs, Recorder, Principal Burgesses, Commonalty and Free Burgesses of the Borough of Eye, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable Earl Cornwallis, Recorder of the said Borough: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Recorder, Principal Burgesses, Commonalty, and Free Burgesses of your ancient Borough of Eye, in the County of Suffolk, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Recorder, Principal Burgesses, Commonalty, and Free Burgesses of your said Borough of Eye, most humbly beg Leave to condole with your Majesty upon the great and afflicting Loss of your Royal Grandfather; who, by the Spirit and Success of his military Operations in almost every known Part of the World, and by the Lenity and Justice of his Government at home, had attained the greatest Perfection of all Royal Felicity, that of being a Terror to his Enemies, and the Delight of his own Subjects.

Our unfeigned Sorrow, upon this melancholy Event, will best inform your Majesty how sincerely we congratulate ourselves upon your Accession to the Throne of these Kingdoms; as we cannot but assure ourselves of a Continuance of the same Blessings under a Prince of the same hereditary Virtue and Moderation.

We ought not, as good Subjects, to be too desirous of any Addition to these Blessings; and yet the Evidence of your Majesty's great and princely Virtues, at so early an Age, affords us the most pleasing of all Expectations, that Time and Length of Days will enable you to complete whatever may be wanting for the real and lasting Advantage of these Kingdoms.

We therefore conclude our most ardent Wishes, both for your Majesty's true Glory, and the Happiness of your Kingdoms, by beseeching the Almighty to grant you a long and prosperous Reign over a free, virtuous and grateful People.

Given under our Common Seal, this Twenty-sixth Day of November, One thousand seven hundred and sixty.

The following Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of the Borough of Bodmyn, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir William Irby, Bart. and George Hunt, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of the Borough of Bodmyn in the County of Cornwall, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Burgesses of the Borough of Bodmyn, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to condole with your Majesty on the Death of our late most gracious Sovereign; a Prince so greatly distinguished by the Lustre of his Virtues, and the Glory of His Reign, that His Memory will be ever dear to these Kingdoms,

But your Majesty's faithful Subjects are less sensibly affected by this melancholy Event, when they turn their Eyes on your Majesty, and behold in your Royal Person a Prince formed by the Example of your Illustrious Grandfather, and an Heir to His Crown and to His Virtues.

Animated with the warmest Sentiments of Zeal and Attachment to your Majesty, and sensible of the Blessings we shall enjoy under your auspicious Reign, we beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty, on your happy Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors; and our most fervent Prayers are offered up to the Almighty, that He may grant your Majesty a long and glorious Reign over a grateful and obedient People.

Given under our Common Seal this twenty-fourth Day of November, in the First Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Town Council of the Royal Borough of Elgin, having been tranſmitted by James Robertſon, Provoſt of the ſaid Borough, to the Right Hon. the Earl of Holderneſſe, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Town Council of the Royal Burrough of Elgin, North-Britain.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Town-Council of Elgin, beg Leave humbly to approach your Auguſt Throne, and condole with your Majeſty on the Death of our late moſt excellent King, your Illuſtrious Grandfather, upon whoſe Head the Crown flouriſhed with ſo much Splendor, and who truly was the Father of a rich and happy People. Permit us alſo, moſt gracious Sovereign, to offer you our moſt hearty and ſincere Congratulations on your happy Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Realms; and to expreſs the joyful Hopes we entertain of being free and proſperous under your wiſe and mild auſpicious Government. Your Majeſty's gracious and declared Reſolutions to preſerve the Conſtitution in Church and State, to promote and incourage the Practice of Virtue, and to diſcourage all Manner of Vice and Immorality, give us the moſt unfeigned Joy, anſwers the moſt ſanguine Hopes and Expectations, which the Nation had long ago conceived of your Princely Virtues, and place your Majeſty very high in the Affections and Eſteem of all your good Subjects. As for our Part, we ſhall take Pleaſure in endeavouring, as far as our Influence extends, to execute the good Laws, ſo warmly enforced by your Royal Authority; and we pray the Almighty, the Father of Lights, to inſpire your Councels continually, and to bleſs your ſacred Majeſty with a long, glorious, and happy Reign; that you may be greatly ſucceſsful in promoting the important Intereſts of Religion and Virtue, which your Majeſty has ſo much at Heart; and may ever be the Guardian of the Laws and Liberties of a loyal, united, and grateful People.

Signed by Appointment,

Ja. Robertſon, Provoſt.

The following Addreſs of the Aldermen, Recorder, Coroner, Capital Burgeſſes, Aſſiſtants, and Common Council of the Borough of Bury Saint Edmund, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Lieutenant of the County of Suffolk: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Aldermen, Recorder, Coroner, Capital Burgeſſes, Aſſiſtants, and Common Council of the Borough of Bury Saint Edmund, in the County of Suffolk, humbly beg Leave to acknowledge and tender our true Allegiance, and faithful Obedience, ſo juſtly due to your Majeſty; and condole the great and unknown Loſs of our late moſt gracious Sovereign your Royal Grandfather, whom it has pleaſed the King of Kings to call to His heavenly Manſion: But though his ſacred Perſon is removed from this earthly Throne, yet his glorious and immortal Memory will ever remain dear to us.

Permit us, Royal Sir, to congratulate you on your happy Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe your native Kingdoms, to which we have the Bleſſing to belong, and which you received by lawful Title, and undoubted Right of Inheritance.

Your Acceſſion, proclaimed amidſt the joyous Acclamations of your happy People, called forth every other Demonſtration of Gladneſs; it ſoon ſpread itſelf, and flew around your Kingdoms, carrying remedial, healing Wings, alone ſufficient to alleviate and aſſuage the Minds of your ſorrowing People, deeply affected by a Loſs, not eaſily, or ſoon, to be forgot.

The many noble and real Virtues you plentifully imbibed in your Youth, were ſo carefully cheriſhed, and ſo properly cultivated in your princely Mind, that they became early conſpicuous to every diſcerning Eye; they have now tranſpired freely; are become well known, and amply confirmed to us by your Majeſty's moſt gracious Speech and Declarations, filled with ſo much Cordiality and kind Affection to your loving Subjects, as muſt denote you the darling Father of your Country.

Your expreſſed Reſolutions to adhere to, and ſtrengthen our excellent Conſtitution, and to continue your Subjects in the full Enjoyment of their Rights and Liberties, both Eccleſiaſtical as well as Civil, have firmly fixed, and cemented the Hearts of your united loving People in their vowed Loyalty, ſo as not to be in the Power of Envy or Perfidy ever to unrivet.

The ſignal Victories obtained by our late, and now your Majeſty's Forces, both by Sea and Land, in Conjunction with your faithful Allies, acting under the wiſe and prudent Conduct, with the aſſiſting Councils of a ſteady Miniſtry, ſtudiouſly uſing a diintereſted Zeal for the publick Good, are Events we recount with Pleaſure.

Give us Leave, Great Sir! as you are left engaged in a juſt and neceſſary War, to aſſure your Majeſty, we will (to the utmoſt of our Abilities) chearfully contribute to the neceſſary Expence of it, hoping to retain our valuable Acquiſitions, and ſtrenuouſly to ſupport our further lawful Claims.

Your Majeſty's expreſſed Regard for publick Merit in your Officers, we humbly beg Leave to obſerve as a moſt noble Princely Reſolve; and your kindly noticing the Uſefulneſs of your Militia, are Circumſtances ſo animating and encouraging, that (if Occaſion ſhould require) we hope, and doubt not, but they will be found of equal and undiſtinguiſhed Zeal for the Protection of your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon and Government, perſevering to the laſt in the Welfare of their Country, and as ſteadily attached to our preſent happy Eſtabliſhment.

We cannot omit returning our moſt humble and hearty Thanks for your Majeſty's moſt gracious Proclamation againſt Vice, Profaneneſs, and Immorality; a Proclamation highly worthy all due Conſideration from the higheſt to the loweſt of your Subjects; and permit us to aſſure you, that we will, at all Times, and upon all Occaſions, both in our Judicial, and other Proceedings, endeavour to excite and preſerve Loyalty and Unanimity in your Subjects; and uſe our utmoſt Efforts to enforce a due Obſervance of your Royal Proclamation, to the End it may have its religiouſly deſigned, and intended good Effect.

We have only to add, that as the preſent heavy Weight of Government has devolved upon your Majeſty, it ſhall be our earneſt, and conſtant Prayer, that the Divine Goodneſs may make your Burden light, your Reign over a free and grateful People, eaſy, long and glorious, and your Race ever to continue on the Throne.

And further, that you may be enabled, under the Protection of His Almighty Arm, to reſtore to theſe Kingdoms, in due Time, the Bleſſings ariſing from a firm, honourable, and laſting Peace.

Given under the Common Seal of the ſaid Borough the twenty-ninth Day of November, in the Firſt Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Third, by the Grace of God of Great Britain, France and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, Anno Dom. 1760.

The following Addreſs of the Alderman, Recorder, Capital and Secondary Burgeſſes of the Town and Corporation of Wokingham, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Lord Henry Beauclerk: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Alderman, Recorder, Capital and Secondary Burgeſſes of the Town and Corporation of Wokingham, in the Counties of Berks,

Berks and Wilts, and within your Majeſty's Foreſt of Windſor.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

PErmit us, your Majeſty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects, to approach your Royal Perſon with Hearts deeply afflicted for the Loſs of our late moſt Excellent Sovereign, whoſe mild and gentle Sway, during the Courſe of a long, and for the latter Part of it, moſt glorious Reign, will ever be remembred with Honour and Regret.

But when we ſee this great, this National Loſs, repaired by the Acceſſion of your Majeſty to the Throne, who, feeling for your People's juſt Affliction, have given us the moſt endearing and gracious Aſſurances of Protection, we cannot be ſo inſenſible as not to feel, or ſo ungrateful as not to acknowledge ourſelves to be the ſame happy People we were before.

Proteſtations of unſhaken Loyalty and Fidelity are the only Returns we can make, for the gracious Earneſts your Majeſty hath been pleaſed to give of your Royal Care and Protection of us: Theſe Returns we make with unfeigned Hearts; and being convinced, that the Religion, Laws, and Liberties of theſe Kingdoms, which have been ſo ſteadily guarded and protected by all the Princes of your Royal Houſe, depend on the Continuance of your Majeſty's Sacred Life, and of the Crown in your Illuſtrious Family, we ſhall not ceaſe to offer up our Prayers for the firſt, and to exert our utmoſt Powers and Abilities in the Support and Defence of the latter of theſe great, eſſential, and invaluable Bleſſings.

Given under our Common Seal the ſecond Day of December, in the Year of our Lord, 1760.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Capital Burgeſſes and Aſſiſtants of the Borough of Loſtwithiell, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Thomas Jones, Eſq; Mayor, accompanied by the Right Hon. Lord Edgecumbe, Recorder, and Thomas Pitt, Eſq; one of the Capital Burgeſſes of the ſaid Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Capital Burgeſſes and Aſſiſtants of the Borough of Loſtwithiell in the County of Cornwall.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE the Mayor, Recorder, Capital Burgeſſes and Aſſiſtants of the Borough of Loſtwithiell, humbly beg Leave to condole with your Majeſty upon the great Loſs theſe Nations have ſuſtained in the Death of our late dread Sovereign of glorious Memory; a Loſs under which nothing could have ſupported us, but the happy Acceſſion of your Majeſty to the Throne of your Anceſtors; an Event for which we are ſincerely thankful to the Divine Providence, and, with the utmoſt Duty and Allegiance, beg your Majeſty to accept our Congratulations thereon.

Your Majeſty comes to the Crown, with the Love and Veneration of a free and loyal People, who have, in your firſt gracious Declaration in Council, as they have long had in your Princely Virtues, the falleſt Aſſurance of their future Happineſs under the Influence of your Majeſty's Government.

Upon this Occaſion, we beg Leave, with all Duty and Humility, to aſſure your Majeſty of our inviolable Attachment to your Sacred Perſon and Government; and that our moſt fervent Prayers and ardent Wiſhes will ever be for your Majeſty's long and glorious Reign over a dutiful and affectionate People.

Given under the Common Seal of the ſaid Borough, the Second Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Corporation of Abingdon, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeſſes of your Corporation of Abingdon, in Common Council aſſembled, beg Leave to join in the general and unfeigned Concern, which every good Subject muſt have felt on the Loſs of your Majeſty's Royal Grandfather, our late moſt gracious Sovereign: An Event, which nothing could alleviate the Misfortune of in the Minds of a grateful People, but the Proſpect of your Majeſty's gracious and juſt Government of this your native Kingdom.

This Bleſſing, aſſured us by your Majeſty's earlieſt Declaration to your People, has juſtly filled the Minds of all honeſt Men, with the higheſt Senſe of Joy, on your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne of your Royal Anceſtors.

This Bleſſing, continued to us by your Majeſty's firm and invariable Attention to the Civil and Religious Rights of your People, cannot fail of uniting the Hands and Heart of every Briton, in the Support and Defence of your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Government; the beſt and ſureſt Protection of our own Rights and Liberties.

Permit us therefore, moſt gracious Sovereign, in our humble Station, to aſſure your Majeſty of a zealous and ſtedfaſt Adherence in the Principles of true Loyalty, and due Obedience to your Government, contributing as much as in us lies, by Practice and Example, to render your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign mild, and reſpected at home, your Power dreaded and courted abroad. And to ſecure to your Majeſty the higheſt and moſt permanent Happineſs of a great and good King, the united and grateful Obedience and Support of a free and powerful People.

Given under our Common Seal, the 27th of November, in the Year of our Lord, 1760.

The following Addreſs of the Bailiff, Recorder, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Bewdley, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiff, Recorder and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Bewdley, in the County of Worceſter.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, Recorder and Burgeſſes of Bewdley, in Common-Council aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to condole with your Majeſty on the Loſs of our late moſt gracious Sovereign, under whoſe long and glorious Reign theſe Kingdoms enjoyed the greateſt Bleſſings.

Permit us, at the ſame Time, great Sir, to congratulate you on your Acceſſion to the Throne of your Illuſtrious Anceſtors, and of your native Country.

That Wiſdom, that Greatneſs of Mind, and that Regard for Religion and Virtue, which ſo eminently diſtinguiſh your Sacred Majeſty, enſure to us, all the Happineſs that a dutiful, loyal and affectionate People can enjoy under the beſt of Kings.

May that good Providence which hath bleſſed us with ſo gracious a Prince, grant your Majeſty a long, happy and proſperous Reign over us.

Given under our Common Seal this 25th Day of November, 1760.

The following Addreſs of the Freeholders, Commiſſioners of Supply, and Juſtices of the Peace of the County of Dumbarton, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Hon. Lieutenant General John Campbell, their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Unto the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Freeholders, Commiſſioners of Supply, and Juſtices of the Peace of the County of Dumbarton.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Commiſſioners of Supply, and Juſtices of the Peace of the the County of Dumbarton, beg Leave humbly to approach your Throne, and to join with the reſt of our Fellow-Subjects, in the moſt ſincere and dutiful Congratulations, on your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Crown; and, at the ſame Time, to expreſs the deep Senſe we have of the Loſs which your Majeſty and this Nation have ſuſtained, by the Death of your Royal Grandfather; whoſe gentle, humane, and equal Rule, will ever be remembered with Gratitude; and, under whoſe auſpicious Reign, the Britiſh Name has arrived at the higheſt Pitch of Dignity and Grandeur.

But it muſt alleviate our Grief, on this Occaſion, that we are ſtill to be governed by a Prince of that Illuſtrious Houſe, which, under God, has been the great Mean of preſerving our happy Conſtitution in Church and State.

Your Majeſty's early Declaration made in Council, of your tender Affection for your native Country, and your Reſolution to make it the Buſineſs of your Life, to promote, in every Thing, the Glory and Happineſs of your Kingdoms, muſt warm the Heart of every Britiſh Subject, with the moſt lively Gratitude.

May your Reign be long and proſperous, over a loyal and free People; and may a Prince never be wanting in your Auguſt Family, to ſucceed to the Imperial Crowns of your Majeſty's Kingdoms to lateſt Poſterity.

Signed in Preſence of the Meeting, by

Ja. Colquhoun, Preſes.

The following Addreſs of the Bailiff, Jurats, Freemen and Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Seaford, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Hon. Lord Viſcount Gage and James Peachy, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bayliff, Jurats, Freemen, and Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Seaford in the County of Suſſex.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bayliff, Jurats, Freemen, and Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Seaford in the County of Suſſex, beg Leave to join with the reſt of our Fellow Subjects, in condoling with you on the Death of our late Sovereign, the moſt glorious and beſt of Kings, and in congratulating your Majeſty on your happy Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Realms.

The many Princely Endowments, which ſo eminently ſhine forth in your moſt Sacred Perſon; the virtuous and noble Examples of your great Anceſtors and Relations, inſtilled into your Majeſty from your Infancy, by the Precepts and Care of your Royal Parents: Your Education among a free and happy People, joined with your own gracious Declarations from the Throne, give us the cleareſt, and moſt pleaſing Proſpect, that the Religious and Civil Rights and Liberties we now enjoy, which in great Meaſure took their Riſe from the Eſtabliſhment of the Crown in your Illuſtrious Houſe, will be continued and increaſed during your moſt auſpicious Reign, to the Happineſs and Grandeur of theſe, and the Admiration of all other Nations.

That the Divine Providence, by whoſe Aſſiſtance our Fleets and Armies have been hitherto crowned with a ſtupendous Series of Victories and Succeſſes, may continue His Bleſſings to us till the preſent juſt and neceſſary War, wiſely adviſed, and bravely carried on, may ſoon be terminated by a laſting and honourable Peace: That your Majeſty may long reign over us, and that there may never be wanting a Prince of your Royal Blood to inherit the Crown of theſe Kingdoms, will be our moſt fervent Prayers and Wiſhes.

Given under our Common Seal the ſecond Day of December, 1760.

The following Addreſs of the Conſtables and Inhabitants of the Borough of Lewes, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Conſtables and Inhabitants of the Borough of Lewes, in the County of Suſſex, juſtly affected with the deepeſt Senſe of Sorrow for the ſudden and unexpected Death of our late moſt Gracious Sovereign, beg Leave, in all Humility and Duty, to approach your Royal Perſon, to expreſs our unfeigned Sentiments of Condoleance on this melancholy Event; and, at the ſame Time, to congratulate your Majeſty on your happy Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, amidſt the univerſal Acclamations of a free and grateful People.

When we reflect, Great Sir! on the mild and auſpicious Government of your Majeſty's Royal Anceſtor, we cannot but obſerve with Pleaſure, that no Period of Time affords an Inſtance when Britons ever enjoyed their Civil and Religious Rights in a larger Extent; and we cannot ſufficiently admire your Majeſty's Goodneſs, for the many gracious Declarations from the Throne, full of Affection and Regard for your People: Theſe Conſiderations muſt ever render dear to us the Memory of your Royal Predeceſſor, and furniſh us with the moſt confident and pleaſing Expectations, that thoſe Laws and Liberties, which have been ſo dearly purchaſed by our Anceſtors, and are become the Objects of Envy and Admiration to other Nations, will, under the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your Majeſty's Illuſtrious Houſe, ever meet with the ſureſt and beſt Protection.

Thus, animated by the warmeſt Affections and Loyalty for your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, we beg Leave to make a Tender of our earneſt Wiſhes, that your Majeſty may long and happily reign in the Hearts of your faithful Subjects: And that the ſame Divine Providence, which hath hitherto ſo wonderfully preſerved this Nation, and given us Victory in the Day of Battle, may always continue to direct your Majeſty's Councils and Endeavours, and enable you to procure for your People the Bleſſings of a laſting Peace.

Given under our Common Seal, the 3d Day of December, 1760.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough and Town of Barnſtaple, has been preſented to His Majeſty by George Amyand, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

PErmit us, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Capital Burgeſſes of your Borough and Town of Barnſtaple, in Common Council aſſembled, to tender to your Royal Perſon our Tribute of dutiful and cordial Condoleance on the Death of our late Sovereign, of whoſe invaluable Loſs, the deep impreſſed Gratitude, for the many Bleſſings enjoyed under his gracious Government, and the univerſal Tears of a whole Nation, are the cleareſt Expreſſions. For as alive he reigned entirely over the Hearts and Affection of a free People, ſo his Sacred Memory will for ever live in their grateful Minds.

But to indulge our Grief too far, would be repining at the Diſpenſations of all-wiſe Providence, who has now called your Majeſty (before poſſeſſed of His Royal Virtue) to the Poſſeſſion of your Grandfather's Throne, we therefore haſten to join the joyful Voice of Congratulation on your auſpicious Acceſſion, your gracious Declaration, and your taking hold on the Reins of Government with ſuch a conſiderate and awful Senſe, promiſe the moſt felicitating Conſequence in your Majeſty's future Exerciſe of it.

A Prince, that, not only by Birth, but by his tender Care, proves the Father of His Country, will naturally maintain all the juſt Rights of his People, and thereby conſtantly merit, and as certainly ſecure, their moſt dutiful Affections.

We repoſe ourſelves entirely on your Majeſty's Aſſurances,

Aſſurances, for adding whatever may, to your great Wiſdom, ſeem wanting to complete the Happineſs and Glory of theſe Kingdoms; not in the leaſt doubting but, by the vigorous Efforts of your Council, your Majeſty will put an honourable and laſting Period to the preſent neceſſary War.

In this, and all other your Royal Undertakings, as with uncommon Condeſcenſion, your Majeſty requeſts the Aſſiſtance of every honeſt Man; ſo are we highly confident, you will never want that Aſſiſtance, nor yet the unfeigned Prayers of every good Man, daily offered up, that the King of Kings, whoſe Service and Church, at your Stepping into the Throne, you made the firſt Object of your Attention and Encouragement, may crown His choſen Servant with a long, proſperous, and glorious Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Bailiffs, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and Freemen of the Town of Youghal, having been tranſmitted to His Grace the Duke of Bedford, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Bailiffs, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and Freemen of your antient and loyal Corpotation of the Town of Youghal, in the Kingdom of Ireland, humbly beg Leave, in the moſt dutiful and reſpectful Manner, to condole with your Majeſty on the Death of your late Royal Grandfather; and though we are moſt ſincerely affected with the deepeſt Sorrow at that great Loſs, permit us, moſt gracious Sovereign, to acknowledge, that our Hearts are filled with an inexpreſſible Joy at your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne of your Royal Anceſtors.

A Corporation entirely deſcended from an Engliſh Colony, who have, for ſome Centuries, diſtinguiſhed themſelves by their unſhaken Loyalty, and Attachment to the glorious Conſtitution of their Anceſtors, cannot but be particularly happy in having a Sovereign to reign over them, who, animated by the tendereſt Affection for his native Country, has moſt graciouſly declared, that he will make it the Buſineſs of his Life, to promote, in every Thing, the Glory and Happineſs of theſe Kingdoms, and to preſerve and ſtrengthen the Conſtitution both in Church and State.

Theſe early Inſtances of your Majeſty's Goodneſs and Concern for the Happineſs and Welfare of your People (which promiſe them all the Bleſſings that can flow from a Mind truly great) call upon us for the higheſt Returns of Affection, Duty and Zeal to your Majeſty; and as we are fully convinced that our own Intereſt and Preſervation are inſeparable from your Majeſty's, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, with our Lives and Fortunes, be always ready to ſupport and defend your Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

May your Majeſty's Crown long ſit with Eaſe and Glory on your ſacred Head, and may it ever deſcend to one of your Majeſty's Illuſtrious Houſe to the remoteſt Poſterity.

Given under our Common Seal, this Twenty-eighth Day of November, in the Firſt Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Canons, Archdeacon, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Ely, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Canons, Archdeacon, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Ely.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, Dean and Canons, Archdeacon, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Ely, beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence, and to expreſs our deep Concern for the Death of our late moſt gracious Sovereign; a Prince, who in the Courſe of a long Reign, conſtantly made the Laws the Meaſure of His Power, and directed all His Thoughts and Actions to the Welfare of His Kingdoms. This ought to endear His Memory to His Subjects of all Ranks, particularly the Clergy, for the Protection and Favour they enjoyed under His auſpicious Government.

We ſhould have felt this ſevere Loſs much more ſenſibly, if it had not pleaſed God, (by whom Kings reign) to alleviate our Concern by your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Imperial Throne of theſe Realms; and with Hearts full of Joy we moſt ſincerely concur in the unanimous Congratulations of your faithful Subjects.

It affords us the faireſt Proſpect of general Felicity, that your Majeſty, under the wiſe and tender Inſpection of an Illuſtrious Princeſs, has been trained up from your earlieſt Years in the right Principles of Religion and Virtue; and we may juſtly promiſe ourſelves, that your Majeſty's perſonal Example of Piety and Virtue cannot fail of having the moſt beneficial Influence on the Minds and Manners of the whole Nation.

It is from this happy Diſpoſition that your Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to begin your Reign with a Royal Proclamation, to inforce the Authority of the Laws againſt Vice and Immorality; and we cannot but hope, that the Magiſtrates, from your Royal Example, as well as from a Senſe of their Duty, will be effectually excited to a vigorous Execution of the Laws, for the farther Promotion of publick Peace and Happineſs amongſt us.

We moſt humbly beg Leave, upon this Occaſion, to give your Majeſty the moſt ſolemn Aſſurances, that on our Part we will faithfully and earneſtly endeavour to do our Duty, by inculcating, upon all committed to our Charge, Affection and Loyalty to your Perſon and Government, ardently praying, that your Majeſty may be bleſſed with a long and happy Life, and your Reign diſtinguiſhed in the Britiſh Annals with Renown and Glory, equal to the moſt Illuſtrious of your Majeſty's Predeceſſors.

The following Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Cheſter, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Cheſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Cheſter, humbly beg Leave to teſtify our ſincere Condoleance on the Death of our late moſt gracious Sovereign your Royal Grandfather, whoſe juſt and wiſe Adminiſtration has produced, under the Favor of Heaven, ſuch accumulated Bleſſings, and ſuch an Extent of Glory to theſe Nations, as muſt warm the Hearts of the preſent Generation with the higheſt Gratitude, and will demand the faithful Acknowledgments of lateſt Poſterity.

At the ſame Time permit us, Sir, to expreſs the unfeigned Joy we feel ariſing from a lively Senſe of the Goodneſs of Providence, which, under ſo ſevere a Diſpenſation, hath placed your Majeſty on the Throne of theſe Realms.

We are not, even in theſe remote Parts of your Majeſty's Kingdom, Strangers to the native Integrity of your Heart, to your ardent Love of Truth and Religion, or to the Benignity and gracious Affability of your Diſpoſition: Virtues by which you have already ſecured the Confidence and Affection of an united People: And we promiſe to ourſelves the moſt important Effects on every Rank of your Subjects,

from Authority thus animated by ſo illuſtrious an Example,

Permit us to aſſure your Majeſty, that, in the Diſcharge of our ſacred Function, we will never be wanting, in our publick or private Inſtructions, to impreſs upon the Minds of thoſe who are committed to our Care, Sentiments of conſcientious Obedience to the Laws, of the firmeſt Attachment to your Government, and of the higheſt Veneration for your Royal Perſon: And our conſtant Prayers ſhall be offered to the Throne of Grace, that you may be enabled to ſuſtain the arduous Taſk that is devolved upon you; that you may have long and uninterrupted Happineſs in this World, and a Crown of Glory in that which is to come.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder Capital Burgeſſes, Aſſiſtants, and other Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Wareham, has been preſented to His Majeſty by John Bond, Eſq; their Recorder, and Edward Drax, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Capital Burgeſſes, Aſſiſtants, and other Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Wareham.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Capital Burgeſſes, Aſſiſtants, and other Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Wareham, beg Leave to condole with your Majeſty on the Death of your Royal Grandfather, truly ſenſible of the Bleſſings enjoyed under His auſpicious Government.

From the Fame of your early Virtues, your Majeſty's loyal Subjects were led to hope for a Continuance of thoſe Bleſſings, which they had ſo long enjoyed; Bleſſings reſulting from a ſteady Adherence to our preſent free and happy Conſtitution. How are our Wiſhes anticipated, our Hopes realized, by your Majeſty's moſt gracious and repeated Aſſurances of maintaining that Conſtitution in every Part inviolate?

Joy and Tranſport muſt fill every Breaſt, and Gratitude compels us to implore the Divine Being, that every Bleſſing may attend your Royal Perſon and Government.

May your Majeſty long enjoy that higheſt of all earthly Felicities, that Felicity which will continually flow from a Conſciouſneſs in your Royal Breaſt, of giving Happineſs to Millions.

Given under our Common Seal this Third Day of December, 1760.

St. James's, December 10.

This Day Count Haſlang, Envoy Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary from the Electors of Bavaria and Palatine, had a Private Audience of His Majeſty to preſent his New Credentials.
